

Monthly review

The result of the US elections was very well received on the US equity markets, broadly neutral in Europe and slightly negative in Asia. Globersel Alkimis Equity Fund was up 3.16%. The exposure to US (mainly long) has certainly helped the performance of the fund, contributing to alpha generation in many sectors: financials, Industrials and Tech. On the other hand, the contribution of the Consumer Discretionary and Communications portfolios is marginally negative. The main contributors to the results were: within Financials, Capital One Financials (long, +18%), Swiss Re (long, +17%) and CVC (long, +20%) within Industrials, United Airlines (long, +24%), Emerson (long, +23%) and Renk (long, +8%) and within Technology, Marvell (long, +16%) CrowdStrike (long, +16%) and Service Now (long, +12%). On the other hand, the contribution of the Consumer Discretionary portfolio was negative, mainly due to Persimmon (long, -14%) and Ferrari (long, -6%). Also negative the performance of CTS Eventim (long, -13%) within Communication. Gross exposure stands at 109% from 102%; net grows from 47% to 49%. With the exception of 8% in USD all currencies are hedged.

The Performance Fee charged to the Sub-Fund may not exceed 3 per cent of the average overall net asset value in the calendar year in which the performance fee is paid.

Investment objective

The Sub-Fund aims to achieve gradual capital appreciation commensurate with reasonable risk. In pursuing this objective, the Sub-Fund's Manager uses fundamental analysis to select long and short investments mainly in equity exposure; both equity securities and OTC derivatives. The Funds seeks to deliver excess return ("alpha") by identifying and exploiting relative misvaluations across and within global equity markets. Long or short equity investment decisions are taken to capitalise on alpha generating opportunities.
